

HENRY'S PROMISE OF GRAFT

FIRST APPEAL TO NATIVES

THE PURITY CANDIDATE STARTS OUT BY A CIRCULAR MAKING HIMSELF APPEAR REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE AND ASKING NATIVE VOTES FOR THE PURITY TICKET ON THE GROUND THAT ITS BACKERS HAVE MONEY TO SPEND.

A circular has been distributed among road department employees over the signature of William Henry, representing him as Republican candidate for sheriff of Oahu county. A complete "Republican" ticket is given in this circular of the Civic Federation's purity candidate, with his own name as the head of the ticket. A translation of the paragraph of this strange campaign document, following a discussion of public works money which is to be spent, is as follows:

"Now, for these reasons, you people that are working for the roads, it is better for you to see for your benefit, and with the above statements, you will see with better understanding that the Republican party is the only party through which these moneys can flow into your hands, and through these candidates:

"William Henry.....Lunamakui
E. R. Adams.....Lunakial Lauti
Joseph J. Fern.....Lunakial
Jack Lucas.....Lunakial
Geo. W. Smith.....Lunakial
J. Hicknell.....Luna Hoola
E. A. Douthett.....Lolo Apana
D. Kalauokalani Jr.....Kakauolelo
("Signed," WM. HENRY.)

The circular is apparently an effort to convince the road department men that Henry is the Republican candidate and that he represents the administration, which will spend the road department money. The circular is in the Hawaiian language, and discusses at length the amounts to be spent by the Public Works department. It gives them in detail, as street improvement appropriations in the following style:

Alanui-Kula.....	$17,000 00
" Pua.....	7,000 00
" Kauka a Pupule.....	10,000 00
" Puunui a Nuanu.....	10,000 00
" Puaa.....	20,000 00
" Mauna.....	10,000 00
" Palolo.....	10,000 00
" Bates.....	7,500 00

These are road appropriations just made by the legislature, for Oahu.

Henry's circular explains that the loan fund money is not to be spent by the county, but by the Territory. It cites act 93, amending the county act, by which road department funds were kept with the Territory, and explains to the voters that the Carter administration or the Territory, will spend all this money, and not the county of Oahu and that therefore the public works employees had better stand in with the territorial administration and get the money.

The circular is dated June 12, and bears a printed facsimile of the signature of William Henry, who stands for the Civic Federation's purity in politics. It is simply an appeal to road department employees to stand in with Carter and get some government money and its placing of Henry as the head of a Republican county ticket is characterized by Republicans as simply a falsehood. A large number of these circulars have been distributed.

JOHNSON ON THE CARPET

GOVERNOR CARTER SENDS FOR HIM TO APPEAR AT 2 O'CLOCK—RUMORS ABROAD THAT SAM'S RESIGNATION MAY BE CALLED FOR AS RESULT OF HIS STANDING BY THE REPUBLICAN TICKET. HIS EMBARRASSING POSITION.

Sam Johnson is "on the carpet" in the governor's office again this afternoon. The governor sent for Johnson this morning, directing him to appear at two this afternoon, and the road supervisor called on the governor according to orders. Sam has had a lot of conferences with the governor. He is in a very embarrassing political position and there are reports that his resignation from the road department may result. Johnson has done a vast amount of good work for the department and has always stood high in the administration's regard up to the present time. His Republican affiliations, however, have caused a lot of discussion in view of the administration's very strenuous efforts to defeat Brown. Attorney General Andrews is in a much similar position, being a Republican who was a delegate to the convention and pledged to the support of the Republican ticket. Carter holds Andrews' undated resignation. Efforts to make Andrews support the Henry movement have not been successful so far.

WHY VOTE AGAINST HENRY

By his own admission I hold him to be either puerile or craven. His initial attitude upon assuming office was to the effect that he could not enforce certain laws. Certainly he did not enforce them. He pleaded the baby act. Not being a specially strenuous man we could not expect any very vigorous policy upon his part. But we did expect decency. Take either horn of Henry's dilemma. Is he puerile? Perhaps I might conscientiously believe so but it would hardly warrant me in voting for him. It may have been that the non-enforcement of the laws against vice was an issue in his retention in office. Could he have shut up certain sinks of iniquity? In answer it is a well known fact that the offending sewer apots were kept disinfected up to the time Sheriff Henry assumed office. This above is only used as an illustration. This is no indictment but a partial analysis of Henry's baby ples as to his inability to control vice. Was it necessary for you to encourage prostitution, Mr. Henry? You were either confessedly weak or you had reasons of your own for fostering profligacy. It is Henry against Henry in this issue. Voters can take either of the Henrys presented above. It is a study of old hens, and so on ad finitum.

To The Rescue Of The National Guard

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AT A MEETING HELD THIS MORNING DECLARED IT ADVISABLE TO KEEP UP THE NATIONAL GUARD OF HAWAII, AND WILL OPEN A PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION FOR THE MONEY TO DO IT WITH.

At a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held this morning it was decided to use an effort to save the National Guard of Hawaii from going to pieces through the failure of the legislature to make any appropriation for its maintenance.

A public subscription will be opened under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and when this has been completed, the Chamber will, if required, contribute a sum not exceeding $1500 to make up the amount necessary to keep the guard in a state of efficiency.

Those present were: E. D. Tenney, in the chair, F. J. Lowrey, J. A. Kennedy, E. F. Dillingham, W. W. Hall, L. T. Peck, E. A. Berndt, J. J. Egan, P. Muhlenberg, A. Garvie, W. Walters, C. M. Cooke, G. H. Robertson, A. Garntenberg, F. W. Macfarlane, G. M. Rolph, F. M. Swancy, W. Lanz, G. W. Smith, W. Protenhauer.

At the opening of the meeting President Tenney stated that it was first to be decided if it was advisable to keep up the militia and then to decide upon

CHILLINGWORTH DEFENSE IN

TESTIMONY TO SHOW THAT ARREST WAS MADE AS FORMER DEPUTY CLAIMED.

Harry Murray, Jack Kalakiela, Chester Doyle, A. M. Brown, A. McDuffie and Judge Lindsay were called as witnesses in De Bolt's court this morning in the trial of Charles F. Chillingworth on a charge of extortion. The prosecution closed and the defense began its case and nearly finished before noon. In answer to the charge that Chillingworth had extorted $10 from a Japanese woman whom he had placed under arrest, testimony was adduced to show that he had arrested her, taken the money as bail money, according to an established custom of the department, and turned the money in at the station.

Former High Sheriff Brown testified that the police officers were allowed to accept bail on the spot when they made arrests, in cases where it was advisable, such as that of a sick person or in a case where considerable trouble or expense would be attached to taking a person to the station. The deputy sheriffs had considerable discretion in such a matter, said Brown.

Kalakiela, station clerk, testified that the officers frequently brought in bail money and entered charges without the persons arrested being present. His attention was called to some Japanese names on the prison register as of the date on which Chillingworth was alleged to have secured the money. They were for the offense Chillingworth is alleged to have accused the woman of and the bail of $10 was entered. Chester Doyle testified that the names entered were fake names, and that the Japanese frequently gave such names when arrested. Brown's testimony was to the effect that when proper names were not given by defendants it was the custom to use any fake name.

McDuffie testified to accompanying Chillingworth on a raid at about the time of the alleged offense. McDuffie himself arrested two Japanese on the same evening, and he stated that he accepted their bail money and turned it in.

Chester Doyle appeared in the role of criminologist. "What is your business?" was one of the first questions asked him in cross-examination by Peters.

"I have no business, I have a profession," replied the Japanese interpreter and detective. Asked what the profession was, he said he was a criminologist.

Judge Lindsay testified that as district magistrate it was his custom in cases of the character in question, to impose a fine of $10, the amount of the bail claimed to have been collected by Chillingworth.

CHILLINGWORTH NOT GUILTY

The jury in the Chillingworth case returned a verdict of not guilty shortly after 2:30 this afternoon.
